INSTRUCTIONS

- Chop white chocolate and put into a heat proof bowl.
- Heat cream to a simmer; do not let boil. Can heat in microwave.
- Add lemon zest. Let steep at least 15 minutes. Strain to remove zest.
- Add raspberry puree to cream. Mix. Heat to just before boiling.
- Add cream & raspberry to the chocolate.
- Let sit for 5-10 minutes.
- Stir until completely melted.
- Mix the raspberry powder into the butter to smooth any lumps.
- Add butter and salt. Stir well.
- Cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours.
- Scoop out about 2 tsp. sized mounds and roll into balls.
- Roll each ball into desired topping.
- Cover and store up to 1 week in the fridge or up to 4 months in the freezer. Thaw uncovered if freezing.
